

Jeanie Scheff

Jeanie has been involved in music projects for many years. To share a few....

- The Doylettes, a female quartet singing traditional gospel in churches around Louisiana.
- The Entertainers, A twelve member band, performing oldies, country, and pop music with audiences around the Southern States.
- Louisiana Hayride, Jeanie had the privilege of appearing on the historic Hayride stage during special events Broadcasts, along with numerous other entertainers.
- Louisiana Magnum Band, a six-piece progressive country and rock band, featured Jeanie and R. Anderson on vocals, supported by award winning fiddler, B.B.Ryan. The group played for thousands, touring the Southern states for eight years.
- Choral presentation and theatre, Jeanie has been involved in various performances in Northern Virginia and Washington DC.
- Roger Hawk's Dixie Angel Band, Jeanie joined with Roger Hawk (former guitarist for George Jones) to form the seven-piece, Dixie Angel Band. The 90 minute legends show brought to stage impressions of Reba, Hank Williams, Patsy Cline (Jeanie), and Elvis, and the warm sounds of gospel. The band delighted audiences for five years.
- Dr. Ron Kenoly, multiple experiences worshiping with Dr. Kenoly and his family. A time of Spiritual Growth, which enhanced Jeanie's passion for serving Christ.
- Grace Notes, Jeanie has shared a worship platform with five other musicians, weekly, since 2003, leading worship at her home church, Memorial UMC.
- Joey and Jeanie, duet music and story ministry at various venues, including, many churches, Live radio, National day of Prayer, Street prayer outreach, Conferences, and multiple other events.
